
CONCEPTS COVERED: Solfa with movable do

STUDENT LEVEL: Beginner and up

Sidestep SOLFA

Sidestep SOLFA

HOW TO PLAY

Group version:

- Choose which level to play with and lay out the relevant solfa cards on the floor in a row.
 - 1 line staff: do, re, mi
 - 2 line staff: do, re, mi, so
 - 3 line staff: do, re, mi, so, la
 - 4 line staff: do, re, mi, fa, so, la
 - 5 line staff: do, re, mi, fa, so, la, ti
- Choose a student to be the conductor and give them one solfa reading card from the correct level.
- All other students should sit in front of the row of solfa cards so that they can see them clearly.
- The conductor should stand behind the starting note and then jump/sidestep to the correct solfa cards as the other students sing the solfa.

Solo version:

- Choose which level to play with and lay out the relevant solfa cards on the floor in a row.
 - 1 line staff: do, re, mi
 - 2 line staff: do, re, mi, so
 - 3 line staff: do, re, mi, so, la
 - 4 line staff: do, re, mi, fa, so, la
 - 5 line staff: do, re, mi, fa, so, la, ti
- Choose one solfa reading card from the correct level and play it for your student.
- Ask your student to "play" the pattern back to you by jumping/sidestepping to the correct solfa cards as you both sing.

ASSEMBLY

To assemble:

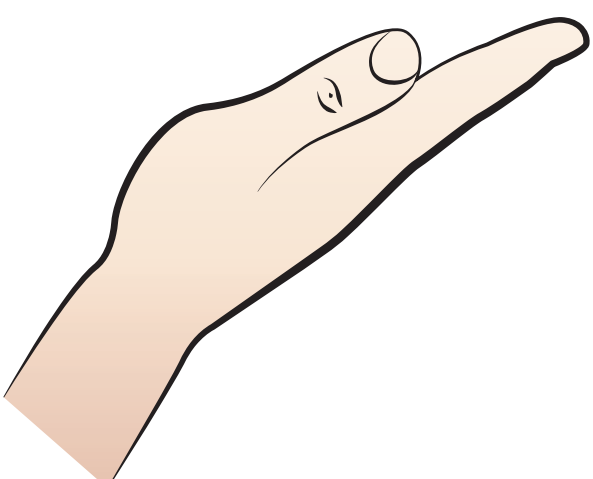

- Print the solfa cards (pages 3-6) and cut along the dotted lines. Laminate if desired.
- Print out all the solfa reading cards (pages 7-21) or just the level you wish to use with your students. Cut along the dotted lines and laminate if desired.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

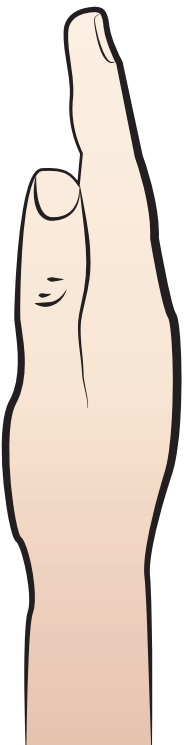

Sidestep Solfa is a truly engaging way to practice solfa singing in your studio in a large or small group. Students will get comfortable singing patterns in solfa and can gradually expand their knowledge of solfa as they progress through the levels.
